OUR STORY

Hello.

My name is Horace P. Belvedere. The story you are about to read is true - cross my heart, hope to die, stick a needle in my eye.

I grew up as an only child. A lonely child. Seems the harder I wished for a little brother, the more Momma suffered her spells (she was often besieged by the vapors.) which coincidentally happed on those rare occasions when Daddy was home. (He peddled fertilizer)

One day, Daddy came home from the Delta, where he'd been duck hunting, with a little ole floppy-eared prancy-pawed pup - a.k.a. the little brother I'd always wanted. Daddy said one of his hunting buddies from way in New York City gave him the dog. Said there was only one catch ... all the pup would eat was something called a bagel. I didn't know what that was. Daddy said it was kind of like a biscuit... only different. I said, "Do you eat molasses on 'em?" He said usually New York folks ate 'em with smelly old fish on 'em.

I fed my beagle, bagels all day long, every day. Until I ran out. Daddy was away, and Mr. Holden's Store sure didn't have any. So, Momma said, "Let's make these bagels ourselves!" Momma was kind of a cooking virtuoso. Taste something once and she could recreate it with her own left hands and farm-fresh ingredients - usually much better than the original!

Pretty soon folks all over our little Mississippi knew all about Mrs. Belvedere's "Beagle Bagels." That's when we decided to open our own bagel shop. Folks loved it. Then we started making different flavors of bagels - and adding toppings, spreads, garden vegetables, even smelly little fish for the true bagel connoisseurs. Needless to say, our little bagel shop is now the talk of the town, and the introduction of these delicious New York delicacies to Dixie can all be attributed to a little beagle pup.

 Beagle Bagels!*

MENU

*Making things from scratch - using only the finest ingredients - right in our own kitchen.
 It's a Southern tradition...
 and we follow that tradition everyday when making our fresh bagels.*
